Hello, all! Spring has sprung!
(the grass is riz, we all can see where the birdies iz)
Sorry about that, but I don't often get a chance to spout "poetry".

First, and VIP--our Spring Members Show. The form is included, but since delivery date is Sat. April 8, 10-12 at the Somerset County Library, I want to give the show extra notice here, also. Co-chairwomen Elsa Herrmann and Eloise Meade will expect your work and once more we'll grace the halls of library. This is a judged show, of course, and awards will be presented at our April 17th meeting. Pick-up is Saturday, April 29th, during library hours--9-5.

Also at our April 17 meeting, Debbie Tintle has arranged for the well-known artist Tim Gaydos. Tim will either do a pastel or an acrylic demo; he's well versed in several mediums. That's 7:30pm at the Somerset County Library. Plus, our Awards Ceremony and our show (in the lobby area).

April is a busy month for RVAA. Our bus trip is April 22, and Amy Wiedemann tells me there are only seven seats left. $15. made out to RVAA and sent to Amy at 1209 Spruce Hills Dr, Glen Gardner, NJ, 08826, will get you one of those seats for a fun-filled trip to the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Salmagundi Club for the AWS Show. The bus leaves Somerville (Bridgewater) Circle at 8:45 am (bus near Pier One, where Reynolds used to be).

Debbie and John Tintle want to thank RVAA very much for the lovely pewter bowl they received from us. They really like it and it will always bring back fond memories of their years as President and Program Chairperson. (and Christmas Show co-ordinator and bus trip organizer, and so much you two did for us, Debbie and John; the bowl is but a small token of thanks)

From a letter from the Woman's Club of Berkeley Heights to me; the club will be having its 40th Annual Art Show and Sale on Sat., June 3, 1995 (rain date June 4), at Memorial Field there. Fine art, sculpture, and photography will be judged by S. Allyn Schaeffer, P.S.A. Info and forms are available from Ms. Dolores Croneberger, 42 Hamilton Terrace, Berkeley Heights, NJ, 07922. 908-464-0807.

Members in the News

Linda Arnold will have a one-woman show of her work at the Mt. Kemble Hospital in Morristown, April 9th--May 13th.

Beatric Bork's show of watercolors and prints "Interpretations of Nature" is at the Berlex Laboratories Corp. Office, 300 Fairfield Rd, in Wayne through May 10 (please phone 201-694-4100 for viewing the work between 9:30 and 4 each day). Her reception was Thurs. Feb. 16.

Debbie Tintle has a one-woman show of her work, both watercolors and oil paintings, at the Chatham Public Library, Main Street (Rte. 24) April 1st through April 27. Her reception will be Sunday afternoon, April 2nd, 2:15-4:00 and you are all invited to come!

Debbie Hughes and Diana W. Patton, representing RVAA, have paintings in the Earth Day Show at the new administration building's Gallery in Somerville. Sponsored by the Cultural & Heritage Commission of Somerset County, the show runs until April 28.

The Bridgewater Artists Show is currently at the Bridgewater Municipal Building, Garretson Rd, until March 31st, and involves quite a few RVAA members, among them Linda Beazley, Joan McKinney, Irma Simonsen, and Diana Patton (I actually haven't gotten there yet, but will and will probably have more names next month).

Diana W. Patton won the Jerry's Artarama Gift Certificate Award at the Garden State Watercolor Society Show, and Ruth Wilson won the American Artist WATERCOLOR magazine Award there. The show is presently at the Gallery, Student Center, Rider College, Lawrenceville, Rt.206,through April 8, daily hrs 12-2;6-8;plus Fri., Sat., & Sunday 2-5.
